Research Project

| Tithnanian society experienced significant traunatization during the 20th century. For 50 |
|--|
| L |
| I I wine than by the Navi Commons and again by the Soviet I Inion In 1020 the Soviet I Inion and |
| Nazi Germany signed the Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact, dividing Europe into spheres of interest. |
| Lithuania was assisted to the Cavist anhard In the summer of 1010_aven before the formal |
| |
| The most annual mentions of the management of th |
| |
| P B Berlin Handelsoftensteille Landensteil – M. M. M. Leiter Laver von 2000 mille der Mittelle Lauer von Landensteil men der Lauer von der Lauer von der State von der State von 1900 mille von 1900 mille von 1900 mill |
| |
| reestablished its control of Lithuania in 1944, starting a new period or occupation mat lasted |
| Emily of the found of the Color commence of |
| A the management of the property of the proper |
| The state of the s |
| D. CENTIF. BETTERSTONE AND ST. ALCANISTONE AND DESCRIPTION OF STREET, AND ASSESSED. |
| I repression, while direct tiven for accases there the confidence regime, the surveings or the |
| victims were not recognised, they were concealed from the public. The sufferers often did not |
| dere to tell their own children about them. Thus, the victims of repression were exposed to |
| traumatic experiences for an extremely long period of time, for several decades. People exposed |
| The first the company of the frameway as a result the months of the expression were uncertained more incidenced for a |
| iong time. Wany of them that share their experiences of deportation of the String even |
| |

 Constitution and de la constable et el care qui inclus preside que incluide dittle de la careta de careta comence e force de la careta de careta comence e force de la careta de careta  Land the state of trauma psychology, the experience of victims of repression living in Lithuania, as well as in cure sunne saltarfenonde distincultine di distributiva distre tan estamala loca distitiva distributiva di sun to trauma, lasting for decades, and to the non-recognition of their traumas, which forced them to hide their past experiences for a very long time.

How has this affected the victims of repression? Does the enforced suppression of trauma memories weaken the effects of the trauma too? Does the psychological state of people who were unjustive exposed? What coping stategies are the victims employ fromer to create the manishps of repression.

In a existence on miffinal vineria defining the states of victims to repression; estatorisned under the least of the Landof the Republic of Lithrania on the Legal States of Rersons who Suffered under the Occupations of 1939 to 1990, enables to commerc the effects of different forms of repression.

Subjected to political repression.

Line process areas Theorem and the indicative selection molecularies standard or living who had not been directly subjected to political repression.

Experiments are indicated as a subject to trauma, trauma-symptom instruments and questions on psychosocial consequencies of long-lesting traumatization. The comparison group would consist of people of the same age.

and spiritual resilience to the long-lasting traumatization and even questions regarding the contraction and even questions regarding the coping with traumatization are post-longical resilience recordly. Which the contraction is a supplication of the contraction of the contracti rika had also lived under the Soviet regime, but were not expected directly.

The Lithuanian experience over the past two decades points to the emergence of more torget the mast as guickly as mossible and to avoid any discussions and relativism, and indifferent attitude to national history, still prevail in society. The lack of a comprehensive and thorough evaluation of the not-toe-distant past still remains a problem in the most post-communist countries. The effect of collective traumas is very complicated and multi the continuance of social memory and the successful inter-generation passage of historical and abnormal society is also a moral trauma. Life by moral double standards eventually affects the to public health and moral values would be a part of the project